

Prepositions that follow verbs
Account for something Agree to something Agree with someone Apply for /to something Approve of something/someone Argue with someone Ask for/about something Benefit from something	Campaign for Cater to/for something Compare something to/with something (compared to/with) Consist of something Cope with Correlate with	Correspond to Deal with Differ from Engage in something Provide for something/someone Interfere with something Respond to something Prepositions that follow nouns
An analysis of something Access to something An account of something A change in someone/something A commitment to something A contribution to something A description of something The difference in something	The difference/distinction between .. The effect /impact /emphasis on something An example of something The feasibility of something An interest in something A/The lack of something In recognition of something	Prepositional phrases: in general point of view with respect to in contact with in terms of in respect of with reference to
Prepositions that follow adjectives accustomed to something Applicable to something Aware of something Based on something Capable of something	Composed of something Critical of/ to something Dependent on someone/something Different from something Keen on something/someone	Independent of someone/something Interested in something Related to something Similar to something Valuable for something