Doctoral application completed and Supervisor has completed electronic 'sign-off'

Supervisor nominates Reviewer(s)

PhD Coordinator invites the Nominee to review

Nominee agrees to review?

"No"

"Yes"

Reviewer reads and comments on thesis proposal

Supervisor and Student consider Reviewer comments and adapt thesis proposal as desired

Supervisor informs PhD Coordinator when the Draft Thesis Proposal is complete

PhD Coordinator informs Faculty Student Centre that the application is ready for sign-off

Faculty Student Centre informs Student's HoD that the application is ready for sign-off

HoD completes electronic sign-off

Application processed by FMHS and University Administration

Provisional Enrolment

Student and Supervisors develop Full Thesis Proposal over the nine months (pro rata) after enrolment and send it to PhD Coordinator who forwards it to the Reviewer

At approximately 11 months (pro rata) after enrolment, PhD Coordinator arranges Review Committee Meeting including Student, Supervisors, PhD Coordinator, and Reviewer

Review Committee happy with progress, environment, and proposed research

"Yes"

HoD signs off 12-month Doctoral Review Form

Full Enrolment

"No"

HoD does not sign off 12-month Doctoral Review Form

"No"

Can the problems be addressed?

"Yes"

Review Committee reconvenes six months later and considers whether appropriate progress is being made

Review Committee recommends remedial changes to the PhD.

Does student enrol in another course (e.g. MPhil)?

"Yes"

Enrolment in alternative course

"No"

Termination of Enrolment