Self-service functionality for doctoral students

March 2015

1. Student logs into SSO using the following link:

- PROD : <https://www.student.auckland.ac.nz/>

The screenshot shows the SSO login interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the University of Auckland logo and name. Below this, a white box contains the login form. The form is titled "Student Services Online - TST" and has a "Sign in" link. It includes fields for "NetID/UIP or Email" (containing "9827004") and "Password" (masked with dots). A blue "Sign in" button is to the right of the password field. Below the button, there are two links: "I cannot log in" and "I forgot my password". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with copyright information, a directory link, and logos for WON and APRU.

Error displayed if the student doesn't have an active PReSS account

The screenshot shows the AskAuckland website header with the University of Auckland logo and a search bar. Below the header, a blue banner with a binary code pattern contains the error message:

You do not have an active PReSS Account

Sorry, but we cannot find an active PReSS Account for you. The reasons you may not have an account might be found in the Frequently Asked Questions in the PReSS Account Guidelines at Doctoral policies and guidelines.
If you believe there should be an account for you please contact the School of Graduate Studies at Email: postgraduate@auckland.ac.nz.
